HEALDSBURG
jazz
FESTIVAL

Whether you are a true jazz fan, a lover of live performance, a believer in art education in our schools, or just someone who enjoys an enlivened hometown vibe, this cultural gem deserves your support.

Now in its thirteenth year, the HJF enjoys a national reputation for artistic excellence earned by hosting internationally acclaimed jazz musicians, showcasing some of northern California's preeminent jazz performers, and nurturing new talent.

"I am really glad to come here because it feels like home away from home. It is a wonderful place for music to be played."

GEORGE CABLES
Legendary Jazz Pianist & Composer

"Playing jazz boosted my self esteem, it gave me confidence ... being in the jazz band got me out of bed in the morning."

CLAIRE ANDERSON
Graduate, HHS Jazz Band

"The Healdsburg Jazz Festival has helped put Healdsburg on the map. It is committed to bettering our community not only by attracting thousands of jazz fans to our City but also by bringing jazz to schools throughout the region."

MIKE MCGUIRE,
Sonoma County Supervisor

keep the music alive

Join the HJF today and help us bring the great living traditions of jazz alive for everyone. Be part of a community of fans committed to celebrating the cultural experience of jazz and ensuring its artistic presence in our national history.
