HEALDSBURG CENTER FOR THE ARTS

Guarneri Double Quartet

Benefit Concert

WEDNESDAY
FEB. 23, 2011
7 PM

ONE SHOW
TWO SETS
TWO GROUPS

GUARNERI DOUBLE QUARTET is comprised of the Bay Area's top creative musicians configuring themselves into two different groups, each group with a different repertoire and sound. The first set will be a quartet comprised of MARIO GUARNERI on trumpet, RANDY VINCENT on guitar, JOHN WITALLA on bass and AKIRA TANA on drums and will feature innovative interpretations of jazz classics and originals.

The second half of the evening the format changes to a double trumpet quartet replacing the guitar with the trumpet of ERIK JEKABSON. This quartet masterfully weaves together their four instrumental voices with intricate artistry, taking the audience along for an unpredictable ride. It could be called anything from jazz, with some classical and avant-garde influences, to four-part chamber music.
